Why Get Serious About Training With MTI?

Hear what our members say...

"The fixed cost I pay for unlimited use of the Academy is pennies compared to the valuable training my employees are getting. The fixed cost also helps me budget more effectively each year for training."

"The courses were very practical to today's heat treating. I learned a great deal on the basics of plant safety as well as the heat treat business. The Academy does a great job distilling the MUST KNOW information."

"The Online Academy is very thorough but not excessively technical. It's also very upbeat and very now."

"I love the Academy because I can take the courses when I have free time from anywhere I can access a computer."

"The group management account helps me easily track my employees' training progress and build incentives around completing courses."
